What is the CHSGHA?

- The first girls' high school ice hockey state tournament was played in the 2006 season between the FCIAC and the SCC (then playing as the CCGHL). The state tournament was continued in the years that followed, with the FCIAC and the SCC alternating sponsorship of an eight-team state tournament.
- The CHSGHA was formed between the conferences in 2015 to govern girls' high school ice hockey in Connecticut, and the state tournament expanded from eight to 12 teams beginning with the 2017-2018 season.
- In 2019, the Central Connecticut Conference (CCC) became the third Connecticut High School Athletic Conference to join the CHSGHA. In 2022-23, Woodstock Academy became the first non-conference affiliated team to join the CHSGHA.
- As of 2025, the CHSGHA has grown to 21 teams, made up of 88 participating Connecticut high schools.
